

M E E T

FR. DANIEL WILSON, LC

Fr. Daniel Wilson, LC is an American priest presently assigned to the religious community in Calgary.

He pertains to the congregations' North American Territory (province) of Legionaries of Christ and assumed local ministry with the congregations' foundation in 2016 of their first center for the apostolate in the diocese of Calgary. Fr. Daniel's first ministry in the diocese of Calgary was serving as the downtown Associate Pastor for Sacred Heart parish, and the chaplain for the laity of the Regnum Christi Movement to Western Canada. Subsequently, Fr. Daniel was reassigned as the local superior of the Legionaries of Christ Calgary community and continues as the Regnum Christi chaplain. His ministry also extends now to chaplain support at the Regnum Christi private Catholic school, Clear Water Academy, and priestly assistance for the two members of the Calgary Legionaries of Christ community assigned to Ascension parish in the Northwest.

Fr. Daniel entered the Legionaries of Christ in 1991, and did his novitiate in Cheshire, Connecticut, and theological studies in Rome. He was ordained in Rome in 2002 and recently celebrated in Thanksgiving 20 years anniversary of the priesthood of Jesus Christ.

Fr. Daniel is the Superior of the Calgary Apostolate Community, and RC Women's Section Chaplain

REGNUM CHRISTI