FR. KENNETH LEBLANC, LC

Fr. Kenneth LeBlanc, LC was born and raised in Rogersville, New Brunswick, Canada, and in 1990 he joined the priestly congregation of the Legionaries of Christ in Cheshire, Connecticut. Fr. Kenneth pursued his Philosophy and Theology degrees from Regina Apostolorum in Rome after studying in Canada, the United States, and Italy. He was ordained as a priest in Rome, Italy, on December 24, 2002.

Fr. Kenneth has dedicated his life to serving as a chaplain for Canada's Regnum Christi lay members. He guides individuals to live out their baptismal calling to the fullest and helps them realize their full potential as apostles for the mission. He achieves this by conducting retreats, offering spiritual direction and coaching to youths and lay faithful throughout Canada and the U.S., and serving as chaplain for numerous pilgrimages, missions, summer camps, and outdoor treks in the wilderness. Fr. Kenneth currently resides in Calgary, Alberta, where he enjoys hiking and scrambling in the beautiful Canadian Rockies on his rest days.

Fr. Kenneth is the Chaplain Support to the RC Federation in the North American Territory, a Board Member of Clear Water Academy, and RC Director.
