FR. ANTHONY SORTINO, LC

Fr. Anthony was born in Brooklyn, New York, on April 2, 1972. His family relocated to Scottsdale, Arizona, when he was nine years old, and they still reside there. During his teenage years, he became involved in the confirmation program and later joined the Life Teen Core Team, which ignited his passion for working with youth and families.

After studying architecture and studio arts at Arizona State University for a few years, he joined the Legionaries of Christ in 1994, part of the Regnum Christi family. Fr. Anthony pursued his bachelor's degrees in philosophy and theology at the Athenaeum Regina Apostolorum in Rome, Italy. Additionally, he spent a year studying classical Latin, Greek, and the liberal arts in Salamanca, Spain.

As an intern, he spent three years serving in Cordoba, Argentina. He has also served as a seminary instructor in Rome and Cheshire, Connecticut, and as Vice Rector of the Center for Higher Studies in New York. Over the past several years, Father Anthony has served as a spiritual director and retreat director in Washington, DC, Raleigh, NC, and Dallas, TX.

He resides in San Jose, California, where he is a board member for CWA sister school, Canyon Heights Academy. He also serves as chaplain for the Young Catholic Professionals of Silicon Valley and as a chaplain for the Catholic Googlers (Google Inc.).

In Fall of 2023, Fr. Anthony was appointed Chaplain and Formation Director for Clear Water Academy. He will make the final transition to Calgary on August 2023.
